01 ABOUT

Your wedding is a unique moment, full of emotion... and details to manage. On the big day, neither you nor your loved ones should have to chase after vendors or deal with unexpected problems: everyone deserves to fully enjoy the celebration.

That's where we come in. We take charge of the complete coordination of your day and become your single point of contact with your vendors. Thanks to our experience and composure, every detail is anticipated and handled with discretion.

The result: you experience your wedding in complete serenity, surrounded by your loved ones, with the comfort of a professional organization... for a budget much lighter than a full wedding planner.

Give yourself peace of mind: let us orchestrate your day, so that all you have to do is live yours.

02 WHO AM I?

For over ten years, I have been passionately and kindly supporting couples in the preparation and coordination of their weddings. My goal: to offer you serenity and confidence so that you can savor every moment of this unique day.

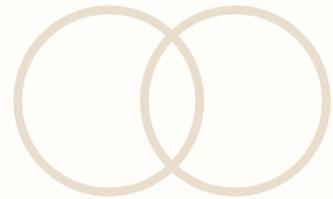

Based in Aix-en-Provence, I work throughout the Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur region: from Marseille to the French Riviera, including the Luberon and the Alpilles.

Whether you dream of an intimate ceremony in a Provençal estate, an elegant reception overlooking the Mediterranean, or an exceptional wedding abroad, I put my experience and network of partners at your service to create an event that reflects you.

Because love knows no borders, I support my couples in French, English, and Spanish.

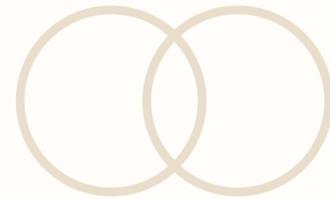

03 MY VALUES

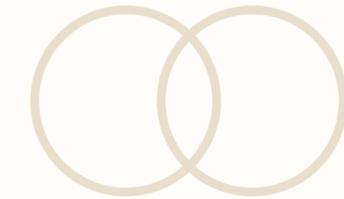

A customized coordination

Every wedding is unique: I take care of the logistics and timing of the big day so that everything unfolds according to your wishes, respecting your organization and your choices of service providers.

A smooth relationship with your service providers

I become the single point of contact for your service providers on the day of the event to ensure smooth follow-up, anticipate unforeseen events and guarantee the perfect execution of what you have envisioned.

Discreet and reassuring support

Present behind the scenes, I ensure that everything is perfectly orchestrated. You and your loved ones can fully enjoy the day, in complete peace of mind.

04 THE PROCESS

01

Discover your project

A dedicated meeting to understand your day, your choice of vendors, and your expectations. Together, we'll review every detail to prepare the coordination for your big day.

02

Formula selection

You choose the formula that best suits your needs, expectations and budget, in order to define the support adapted to your event.

03

Transmission of your service providers

You send me your list of service providers. I can advise you if needed, and I gather all their contact details and key information. This allows me to calmly prepare for the next steps and create a precise and realistic schedule.

04

Creation of the schedule & technical visit

I will create a schedule for your big day. I also conduct a technical visit of the reception venue to anticipate logistical constraints and best organize the arrival and setup of each service provider.

05 TESTIMONIALS

We dreamed of the perfect wedding – a wedding planner who took great care of us and listened to our wishes. A truly wonderful person who made our dream wedding a reality. Thank you, Cindy!

Aurélie & Jérémy

Wonderful experience! – Everything was perfect from the choice of venue to the coordination of the big day. Available, attentive and professional, with valuable contacts.

Alice & Sam

Cindy didn't just coordinate; she advised us throughout the preparations, gave us lots of tips, and knew how to calm our anxieties. Her kindness and professionalism put us at ease from the start.

Marie-Line & Paul

With Cindy, you immediately feel at ease. She is kind, patient, and always offers great advice. Her presence on the big day allowed us to fully enjoy ourselves without stress, and our families loved her kindness.

ETERNAL PROMISE

FORMULA N°3

This package includes all the services of the “Romantic Getaway” package, plus the following additional services:

5

Presence and coordination on the day

I am present from the arrival of the first service provider and ensure continuous coordination throughout the day until the end of the wedding cake, ensuring adherence to the schedule and the smooth running of each key moment.

6

Managing all unforeseen events

I anticipate and manage unforeseen logistical, technical or organizational issues so that you can fully enjoy your event with complete peace of mind, without having to intervene.

Single point of contact for all stakeholders and guests

I am your main point of contact throughout the entire planning process. I work independently on your project, while relying on my team of professional coordinators who can be called upon in case of unforeseen circumstances or unavailability, thus guaranteeing that a coordinator will always be present on your wedding day. The team members will be introduced to you beforehand. Our role is to ensure seamless communication between the couple, their families, and the vendors so that every moment is perfectly paced and nothing is left to chance.

08 AND MORE

The photos you have just seen are from my most recent weddings. However, I have been helping couples prepare for their big day for over ten years now, always with the same passion and commitment.

For years, I organized weddings from start to finish, taking full responsibility. But I am now seeing that more and more couples want to retain the freedom to choose their own service providers, to be actively involved in the organization and to shape their day according to their wishes – all while controlling their overall budget.

One crucial point remains: day-of coordination. Even if everything is planned, someone is needed to orchestrate the timing, welcome and brief the vendors, manage unforeseen events, and ensure that every detail unfolds as expected. This role shouldn't fall to the witnesses or close family and friends, who also deserve to fully experience the day alongside you.

That's exactly where I come in: to offer you a smooth, serene and perfectly orchestrated day, while leaving you the freedom to build your wedding in your own image.
